Speaking

Preparation – 3 minutes

Imagine that you are talking to your parents about your future career. There are four options – a journalist, software developer, lawyer, physical therapist. Your aim is to make them realize that you are really into this field.

Within 2-3 minutes you should:

- name and prove not less than THREE advantages of the chosen profession;
- explain why the rest of the professions do not seem appealing;
- tell them what sort of support you need.

NOTE Start your arguments with the phrase If I were ...
